

The John L. Tobias Exceptional Volunteer Award

“The John L. Tobias Exceptional Volunteer Award” is an award given by St. Margaret Mary School’s PTO. It is a great way to recognize the many special people that faithfully serve our school community. These dedicated volunteers support the school mission and vision of nurturing the gifts and talents of all students, supporting a quality education program and preparing students to be productive members of their community.

The Award Winner is honored at the St. Margaret Mary School PTO’s Gala and receives an award plaque. The Selection Committee includes the Principal, [current or past] PTO President and the Past Year’s Recipient of the Award.

Award Criteria

Nominations for “The John L. Tobias Exceptional Volunteer Award” are accepted under the following criteria:

- 1) Nominee(s) assisted or spearheaded a campaign or service that proved beneficial to a student(s), school or community.
